

Farm Fresh. Always

Fruitways is an agri-business that specialises in the growing, packing and marketing of apples and pears to retailers, traders and wholesalers around the globe.

GRADUATE OPPORTUNITIES

We are looking for energetic and ambitious graduates who is passionate about the pome fruit industry. The successful candidate would need to be analytical, resilient and able to function effectively in a detail orientated environment.

To gain the necessary experience in the fruit industry we have four opportunities available in our packing operations division.

Requirements:

A qualification or equivalent qualification in any of the following:

- Industrial Engineering

Skills & experience:

- Excellent interpersonal & communication skills (both written and verbal)
- Good planning and organisation skills
- Ability to adapt, be flexible and have a strong learning potential

Please note that the operational site for these opportunities are in Grabouw so you would need to be willing to travel to or reside in these areas.

To apply, please send your CV and academic record to recruitment@fruitways.co.za.

Please provide confidential email address for feedback.